OBSERVATION REPORT

//////////

is coming to India with the OG Doner Kebab. A global street food classic that's been around since the 19th century, now landing here with a whole new vibe. This isn't just a global QSR with 170+ locations showing up, it's a flavour upgrade with a new cultural wave India didn't know it was missing, but 100% deserves.

GDK sits at the intersection of food and culture, where music, fashion, and sport influence how people eat, move, and connect.

It exists as part of that everyday rhythm, not outside of it.

INSIDER PROTOCOL

DO

☒ Come hungry. "I ate" is just fiction.

☒ Document everything. The moment passes.
The evidence doesn't.

☒ Act as if you belong.
Nobody knows what's going on anyway.

☒ Bring this passport.
Your face doesn't get you in. This does.

☒ Ask zero questions. The suspense is basically the appetizer.

☒ Ask for spoilers.

☒ Show up late.

☒ Expect any table manners.

MOST IMPORTANT

*If things get messy,
you're doing it correctly.*
